For the past 19 years, Gregg Catalano has been working with youth from around the United States, the United Kingdom and Europe making a difference through the use of play. Gregg has discovered that the most effective ways to reach our youth and convey strong, pure, positive messages is through the varied experiences gained while playing and participating in games. Gregg utilizes his therapeutic background and skills in all his workshops to help participants better understand themselves, others, and the world around them. Gregg is a unique presenter whose workshops are always "high energy", entertaining, and informative. Recognized as one of the nation's top educational, recreational, and motivational speakers, Gregg blends activities, humor, insight, and practical ideas into these workshops that leave participants energized, and truly believing in themselves. As the "Physician of Phun", he is truly what the doctor ordered and is a presenter you won't easily forget!

Gregg has presented at numerous conventions & camps and always receives RAVE reviews!
